The Associate of Arts degree in Travel is designed as a career training educational curriculum track. The curriculum is not aligned with course requirements for transfer to a specific major at a four-year college or university. West Los Angeles College's Travel program will prepare you for a fast growing career. Our courses prepare students for careers in most segments of the travel industry: touring, lodging, cruising, destination promotion, event planning, airport operations and travel agencies. Job advancement in the field often comes quickly, and the business lends itself to entrepreneurs, home-based workers and career changers as well.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES (PLOs):
